

Urban Design Features 2 ^[1]

Urban Design Features 2 (November 9, 2009):

The street cross section itself can improve the look and feel of the area, using trees, landscaped medians, and similar features, again making it more attractive to visitors.

Section 1

Street lighting fixtures can help dress the area, particularly for evening and night time visitors, both enhancing traffic safety and pedestrian comfort.

Lighting

Lighting on Planted Median
with Hanging Baskets

Cobra Style Light
with Banner

Decorative Light Pole with Banner

Pedestrian
Scale Lighting:
Shepard's
Crook Style

Pedestrian
Scale Lighting:
Single Acorn
Style

[3]

KELSO WEST MAIN STREET REALIGNMENT

October 26, 2009

Image: www.pacificnw.org/real/lan/090109

DRAFT

Sidewalk treatments are a common element used to make otherwise broad stretches of white concrete more visually appealing.

Street Trees in Wells

Sidewalk Treatments

Street Trees with Grates

Brick Pavers and Concrete

Pavers

Raised Planter

Planted Tree Well

Planting Strip / Street Trees

[4]

KELSO WEST MAIN STREET REALIGNMENT

October 28, 2009

DRAFT

Similarly street furnishings, from benches to bike racks, can provide not only improved utility for users but can be attractive enhancements to invite people to stay and shop, or to enjoy the park.

Metal Bench

Wood Bench

Decorative Bench and Trash

Hanging Baskets

Recycling Container

Concrete Trash Receptacle

Furnishings

Triangle Rack

Decorative Rack

Bicycle Locker

Covered Bicycle Parking

Information Kiosk

[5]

KELSO WEST MAIN STREET REALIGNMENT

October 25, 2009

DRAFT

Copyright © 2015 City of Kelso, Washington

Source URL: <http://www.kelso.gov/urbandesignfeatures2>

Links

[1] <http://www.kelso.gov/urbandesignfeatures2>

[2] <http://www.kelso.gov/sites/default/files/images/west-main/Conceptual%20Cross%20Sections.pdf>

[3] <http://www.kelso.gov/sites/default/files/images/west-main/Lighting.pdf>

[4] <http://www.kelso.gov/sites/default/files/images/west-main/Sidewalk%20Treatments.pdf>

[5] <http://www.kelso.gov/sites/default/files/images/west-main/Furnishings.pdf>